I was hurrying to my house...
When something unexpected happened!
I saw something in the distance...
what can that be?
I started running to find what I had seen
After running for a while, I stopped in front of a large portal from which a strange blue light came out.
Suddenly I began to notice a force that attracted me towards the portal and...
what's going on??
I was so nervous that I decided to go home to rest and calm down.
For a while I was thinking and...
OMG I got it!
at night, after dinner I went to bed to prepare things to go look for that strange portal
I was waiting for my parents to fall asleep. I got dressed and went to check if my parents were asleep or not.
When I was sure they were asleep, I went down to the dining room to leave when...
Shhhhhh silence!!
good dog!!
run, come home but don't make noise.

When I already closed the door, I went to the forest to look for that strange portal.
uffffff...
while running the sky got completely dark, so I had to be careful.
After walking for a while, I reached the portal from which a very strange smoke was coming out.
Since it was getting very dark and it was hard for me to see, I started walking to get out of that field and return home. Since nothing was happening.
but suddenly...
ahhhhhhh!!!!!!!
!!!
what should happen to the girl???
He will not have thought that I am a real alien, right????
ACTION!
THE END
